How To Recognize HOUSING DISCRIMINATION?

Under the Fair Housing Act it is Unlawful to:

- Refuse to rent, sell, or negotiate housing,
 - Otherwise make housing unavailable or discourage the purchase or rental of a dwelling,
 - Set different terms, conditions or privileges for sale or rental of a dwelling,
 - Provide a person different or limit privileges in housing services or facilities of a dwelling,
 - Falsely deny that housing is available for inspection, sale or rental,
 - Make an ad of a dwelling that indicates any preference, limitation or discrimination,
 - Impose different sales prices or rental charges for the sale or rental of a dwelling,
 - Use different qualification criteria or applications, or sale or rental standards or procedures,
 - Harass a person,
 - Assign a person to a particular area of a building or neighborhood,
 - Refuse to make a mortgage loan or provide other financial assistance for a dwelling,
 - Refuse to provide information regarding loans,
- and
- Impose different terms or conditions on a loan, such as different interest rates, points, or fees.

The Fair Housing Act States That It Is Illegal To discriminate In Housing Based On:
